PREPARING THE FUTURE TOGETHER

Since its foundation in 1968, Université Paris-Dauphine has been a pioneering force in higher education.

A singularly outward-looking, creative and responsible institution, both a university and Grande École, Paris Dauphine is unique in the French academic landscape. Its research-based teaching and commitment to knowledge sharing make it a key international player in its disciplines.

Paris-Dauphine is engaged in a continuous dialogue with the economic and business community via its long-term corporate partnerships and powerful alumni network. With a professionally oriented, multidisciplinary approach to academics and ambitious, innovative research programs, Paris-Dauphine is helping the business community meet today’s economic and societal challenges.
