Overview (min 5 lines)
The first decade of the XXIst century has been decisive for the future of Europe. Several Central and Eastern European countries as well as some Southern European countries, have integrated the European Union. The Europe of the 6 is now the Europe of the 28, and might be one day the Europe of the 29 or more.

The Economic and Monetary Union, the creation of the Euro zone with the settlement of the single currency within a limited but growing number of member countries have thoroughly modified the relations between the European Union and the rest of the world economy.

During the seminar, different themes and policies will be explored among them:

- The European construction
- The European institutions
- The Economic and Monetary Union
- The European budget policy
- The European energy policy
- The European competition policy
- The external trade policy of the European Union
- The European social policy

Grading
The numerical grade distribution will dictate the final grade.

Class participation: Active class participation – this is what makes classes lively and instructive. Come on time and prepared. Class participation is based on quality of comments, not quantity.

Exam policy: In the exam, students will not be allowed to bring any document (except if allowed by the lecturer). Unexcused absences from exams or failure to submit cases will result in zero grades in the calculation of numerical averages. Exams are collected at the end of examination periods.

Academic integrity
Be aware of the rules in Université Paris Dauphine about plagiarism and cheating during exams. All work turned in for this course must be your own work, or that of your own group. Working as part of a group implies that you are an active participant and fully contributed to the output produced by that group.
