Learning agreement

- Before coming to France, fill in your learning agreement online between mid-June and mid-July.
- You need to register at least to one class in order to create and save the learning agreement. Add the courses you wish to attend. At your arrival you will be allowed to make modifications.
- The learning agreement is a pre registration to the course. It does not guarantee your seat. To confirm your registration, it is compulsory to attend the first class.
How to check schedules

International Affairs courses schedules (codes starting with I0) are available on our website.

Other schedules can be checked on "Academic Departments Calendar".

First check the level of your class, then the program to which it belongs (for L3, M4 and M5) and finally the corresponding semester.

Commute in Paris and around

Public transport

You can travel in Paris and its suburbs with the same card. Depending on the length of your stay, you have different solutions. Here are 2 options for foreign students in Paris:

1. Buy a Navigo Pass at a metro station for €5. Reload it monthly by paying 73€. You can use buses, metro and regional trains (RER) as many times as you want without extra fees.

2. The « Imagine R » subscription allows students to get a 50% discount for the Navigo Pass. The contract is valid for one year (around €342/year or €38/month – 2015/2016 rates). You will need to provide a copy of your student card or a registration certificate.

- Get a subscription form in any metro station
